

Social and Personal

MISS KATHLEEN CAUGHY, who has been the guest of relatives in Richmond for several months, will go to New York the latter part of next week, from which place she expects to call the last of this month for Italy to join her parents at Milan. Miss Caughy has been in this country for the past year, and spent last winter in Washington, where a number of brilliant entertainments were given in her honor. She made her debut in Baltimore several years ago, and is prominent in diplomatic circles of Washington, where she spends a good deal of time. Gardner-Lemmon.

A wedding in which Baltimore and Virginia society is much interested took place yesterday, when Miss Isabel Tasker Lemmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Southgate Lemmon, of Baltimore and Virginia, became the bride of Winthrop Gardner, of New York, son of the late John Lyon Gardner, of Gardner's Island. Owing to mourning in the family of the groom, the wedding was a very quiet one, and the ceremony took place at 8 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents in Baltimore. Miss Elizabeth Herbert Lemmon, who will be presented to society next winter, was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant.

Handful Party Entertained.
A handsome affair given Tuesday in Danville was a dinner party, of which Miss Jessie Watson and Miss Mary Mearns were hostesses. The dinner, which took place at half-after 5 o'clock, was in honor of Miss Hattie Bouldin, whose marriage to Philip Nelson, of West Virginia, was a big social event. The guests were seated in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church in Danville. The rooms were decorated in great bowls of lovely flowers, and the table in the dining room was set with a centerpiece of lilacs of the valley and bride roses, and souvenirs for the guests were picture frames containing pictures of the bride.

Covers were laid for ten guests, and those present were the guest of honor, Miss Nell Voss, Miss Lily Jennings, Miss Fannie Bouldin, Miss Berkley Nelson, of Richmond; Miss Madge Vass, Miss Lucy Bouldin, Miss Bessie Carter, Miss Watson and Miss Massie. At the conclusion of the dinner the guests attended the rehearsal at the church.

Sailing for Germany.

Mrs. Marie Balzus and two children, of this city, were among the passengers sailing for Bremen, Germany, from Baltimore yesterday on board the North German Lloyd steamer Frankfurt. Mrs. Balzus and her children will remain in Europe for some time.

Easter Dance.

The second Easter dance of the Episcopal High School was given Monday night in Alexandria by the students of that institution, and was a very charming affair, with a number of out-of-town guests present. L. L. Phillips was chairman of the committee, and the decorations were in flags and bunting, with a screen of palms to conceal the orchestra, which played during the evening. Some of the old students attending the dance were A. M. Blackford, Jr., Joseph M. Wood, D. W. Grant, of Richmond; J. S. Hewitt and others.

Interesting Engagement.

The Baltimore Evening Sun of Tuesday contains the following announcement of much interest to Virginia society:

"One of the earliest summer weddings will take place Saturday, June 3, when Miss Elise Wilson Heyward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson P. Heyward, of Baltimore, will be married to Archibald du Pont, of Wilmington, Del., some of the late Francis du Pont. The ceremony will be performed at 6 o'clock at St. John's Church, Waverly, and will be followed by a small reception at 1510 Bolton Street, the home of the bride. Miss Deelma Heyward will be her sister's maid of honor and only attendant, and John Heyward, of Baltimore, will be the best man. Mr. du Pont's family is one of the wealthiest and most conspicuous in America. For centuries they have lived in Wilmington, where their family takes an entire page of the social register."

His Amateur Play.
The next important event in society circles here will be the big amateur performance of "The Little Tycoon," to be given at the Academy of Music on Monday and Tuesday nights by the Junior Council of Jewish Women in this city. The costumes, which have been made in New York, will be unusually unique and handsome, and the cast represents some of the best local talent in Richmond. A big chorus of seventy-five pretty girls will induce several very pleasing little dances, besides some very clever songs, for which the opera is famous, and the Japanese drills in the last act will be one of the best features of the performance.

Date of Outing Changed.
The outing to Old Point arranged for the afternoon of May 13 by the members of the Westmoreland Club has been changed to the following Saturday, May 20, owing to the conflict of that date with the annual pilgrimage of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities to Jamestown Island. The excursion will be a very pleasing affair, and several hundred people will go down on the special train, which will carry the members of the club and their friends to Old Point on that afternoon. Dinner will be served at the Chamberlin Hotel, and most of the guests will attend the dance there afterwards.

Smith-Hurst.
Another engagement just announced is that of Miss Sally W. Hurst, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hurst, of Baltimore, to Robert W. Smith, of the same city. Miss Hurst is a very attractive and accomplished young woman, and speaks Italian and French fluently. Mr. Smith is a brother of Mrs. Robert W. Forsyth, of this city. He is a member of the Baltimore Club and the Bachelor Cotillion. The date for the wedding has not been announced.

Monthly Meeting.
The regular monthly meeting of the Branch R. Allen Auxiliary will be held this morning at 11 o'clock in Murphy's Hotel Annex. Business of importance will come before the meeting, and all members of the organization are asked to attend.

Card Party Monday.
Miss Mary Lee Rowe was hostess at a very charming card party at her home, 127 West Clay Street, on Monday evening, the occasion being the celebration of Miss Rowe's birthday. Decorations were in spring flowers, and supper was served at the small tables at the conclusion of the game. Miss A. L. Parker made the highest score.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Mary Traylor and her guest, Miss Elizabeth Wilbur, of Philadelphia, are spending some time at Old Point Comfort.

Miss Corinne Eaglesfield, who has been registered at the Jefferson Hotel in this city, has gone to Sweet Briar College.

Mrs. Mamie Atkinson, of Norfolk, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. Pierce, in this city.

Mrs. Clarence W. Robinson, of Newport News, is the guest of Miss Evelyn Gordon, in Richmond.

Dr. and Mrs. George Ben Johnston, who have been stopping in New York, have returned to the city.

Miss Ellen Pollard has returned to the city, after visiting Mrs. H. E. Parker at her home in Newport News.

Miss Rosa P. Trant left Richmond Monday for Danville, where she attended the Nelson-Bouldin wedding yesterday.

Mrs. Tazewell Taylor has returned to Norfolk, after visiting Mrs. Horace Hawes in this city.

Miss Mary Wilbur, who has been visiting in Charlottesville, is now the guest of friends in this city.

Mrs. A. C. Jones has returned to her home in Newport News, after spending some time with friends in Richmond.

Mrs. Arthur R. Stansburg, of Norfolk, is spending a few days in Richmond.

Mrs. J. Robert Clarke, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. James D. Scott, of Lynchburg, is a guest of Mrs. W. F. Chalmers.

Mrs. George S. Brewster and little son, who have been visiting Mrs. Robert Bosher, have returned to their home in New York.

Dr. H. Ward Randolph has returned to the city, after an absence of a few days in Reidsville, Northumberland county.

HER LOOKS A SURPRISE

Says Mrs. Albert Root—to Her Friends—As a Result of Taking Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Amanda, O.—"I was hardly ever without a headache, and often had a misery in my back and sides," writes Mrs. Albert Root, of this place.

"I was sick in bed one half of my time, and suffered a great deal from neuralgia of the stomach."

"Since taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, I have gained 10 pounds and now I can do all of my own housework and washing, and my friends say I look like a different person."

"Before I began using Cardui, the doctor said I would have to have an operation, but I would not hear of it and commenced using Cardui, which has helped me wonderfully."

Weak, delicate ladies need Cardui to bring roses into their pale cheeks and snap into their weary frames. No other tonic or medicine can take the place of Cardui, because the principal ingredients are imported direct from Europe, where they are grown and gathered especially for us.

Cardui can only be bought at the drug store in original Cardui bottles. Accept no substitutes, as the genuine Cardui is the woman's tonic about which you have always heard.

Ask your druggist.

RANDOLPH-MACON ENDS ITS DEBATING SEASON

Final Contest Is That of Washington Literary Society, With Negative Winning Decision.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Ashland, Va., May 3.—With the public debate of the Washington Literary Society, held in the college chapel here last night, the debating season closed at Randolph-Macon. The subject of the debate was the ship subsidy bill, and the debaters were: Affirmative—W. G. Fairbanks and F. M. Wray; Negative—E. A. Burgess and L. C. Kackley. The decision was in favor of the negative. In spite of the ball game in Richmond yesterday afternoon a big crowd was out.

The debates of the Yellow Jackets consisted this year of the two usual public debates of the literary societies. The first was held on April 21, the subject being the ship subsidy bill, and the referendum, and two inter-collegiate debates, one with Emory and Henry College, and the other with Richmond College. Randolph-Macon upholding the negative side of the commission municipal government question, both the Yellow Jackets won a unanimous decision over the Spiders. The debaters on the Frank Hall side were: Affirmative—M. L. Walcott, Jr., and J. E. Nelson, and the negative team—J. C. Simpson and R. K. Dawson. The team against Emory and Henry were: Affirmative—J. C. Simpson and R. K. Dawson, and the negative team—J. C. Simpson and R. K. Dawson. The team against Richmond College were: Affirmative—J. C. Simpson and R. K. Dawson, and the negative team—J. C. Simpson and R. K. Dawson.

Weddings at Heathsville.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Heathsville, Va., May 3.—Kenneth Gould and Miss Amanda Wilson, both of Heathsville, were married yesterday afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Rev. W. L. Ware officiating.

Lonnie Rose and Miss Mattie R. Parley were married Tuesday evening at the home of Robt. Rose, in Warren Neck, by Rev. J. D. Hosier.

Engagement Announced.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Fredericksburg, Va., May 3.—Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Arundel, of this city, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edith Arundel, to John Barber, son of Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Barber, of this city. The marriage will take place in the coming fall.

ENTERS RACE FOR SHERIFF.

James L. Partlow's Announcement Means Triangular Fight.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Spotsylvania, Va., May 3.—James L. Partlow, of Partlow, has announced his intention of entering for the office of sheriff for the year 1912. He has announced his intention of entering for the office of sheriff for the year 1912. He has announced his intention of entering for the office of sheriff for the year 1912.

The cold north wind of yesterday drove the mercury down to almost zero point, and this morning there was a heavy frost, which killed much of the sensitive and delicate fruits and vegetables, and it is feared that the early peach crop will be ruined. Farmers and truckers are further helped by their work than in many years.

MAY DAY EXERCISES AT SWEETBRIAR INSTITUTE

Large Number of Visitors Witnessed Pretty Spectacle of Crowning of the Queen.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Amherst, Va., May 3.—Quite a number of people from Amherst, Lynchburg, and other places attended the May Day exercises at Sweetbriar Monday. The exercises opened with the gathering of the Queen's subjects in the circle in front of the administration building. This was followed by the procession to the grounds of the Queen of May, Miss Margaret Cobb, of Ohio, and her attendants—Miss Margaret Dalton, of Baltimore, as maid of honor, with Misses Leto Camp, Esther Cornwall, Nellie Davidson, Margaret Dural, Faye Elliott and Cynthia Magee—composed of the court. The throne was situated at the back of a grassy plot between huge box trees, and was arched with pink roses and evergreens. After the coronation the May pole dance took place, and the Queen and her procession then marched to "Sweetbriar Hill," where the "Maid of the Rose" was presented. This poem, which was divided into three acts, tells the story of the Dreamer, who enters Sir Mirth's garden, and there, after he has been shot by Cupid's arrow, wins the rose.

The costumes of the young women, quaint and beautiful in design, showed up well on the dark green background, surrounded by the lake and beautiful forest trees. One of the most attractive features of the program was the dance, in which seventeen young women, each dressed to represent a different color of the rose, took place. As they danced on the edge of the lake, the different colors were reflected in the water below. During the performance the Queen and her court occupied a throne on the hill just above the dancing place.

The Sweetbriar Glee Club, accompanied by the orchestra, rendered "In Springtime," composed of a cycle of songs, including "Ye Awakening," "Apple Blossoms," "Spring Heralds," and others. Monday night the May Day ball took place.

The grounds were beautifully decorated in pink roses and dogwood blossoms.

May Day at Williamsburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Williamsburg, Va., May 3.—A grand and beautiful ceremony took place on Palace Green Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being a May Day carnival and the crowning of a Queen of May.

The gay May Day pageant, composed of beautiful little girls, dressed in white and rolling flower-bedecked carriages, was witnessed by a great throng. Her Majesty, Miss Mary Hensley Spencer, accompanied by a numerous retinue of courtiers and attendants, her chariot being drawn by a small party, proceeded in state down the court of honor to her throne at the north end of Palace Green, where after the coronation ceremony, she viewed the May pole dance and the games and races given in her honor. From her throne she distributed prizes among the contestants. The forms of Merrie England of the olden time were followed with fine effect.

Special Election Ordered.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lynchburg, Va., May 3.—A correspondence covering a period of several months, Rev. Ritchie Ware, pastor of the First Christian Church, has succeeded in obtaining a promise from Andrew Carnegie to donate $1,000 toward the purchase of a pipe organ for the church now in construction, of which Mr. Ware is pastor.

Burch-Vorpus.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Winchester, Va., May 3.—W. Burch, widely known horseman of Millwood, Clarke county, and Miss Annie E. Vorpus, daughter of M. M. Vorpus, of the same place, were married to-night in the Baptist Church at Millwood, by Rev. J. B. McInturf, of Strasburg. They left on an extended trip to Florida.

Special Election Ordered.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Harrisonburg, Va., May 3.—The Town Council last night fixed May 23 as the day for a special election, when the election of a new town clerk, and the making of a park and approach to the new Baltimore and Ohio depot will be settled.

STATE COLLEGES ENTER CONTEST

Oratorical Association Will Meet at Randolph-Macon on Friday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Ashland, Va., May 3.—Next Friday night the biggest event of the year at Randolph-Macon will take place, when the Virginia State oratorical contest will be held in the college chapel. The oratorical association is composed of eight colleges and universities—William and Mary College, Hampden-Sydney College, Roanoke College, Emory and Henry College, Richmond College, Randolph-Macon College, Washington and Lee University and the University of Virginia. Each college sends a contestant, each school being represented by a bona fide student, whose oration must be original, to the winner of which is given a magnificent medal. This medal is the highest honor possible to a student speaker in the State.

The contest meets at the various colleges in turn, and this year it will be the guest of the Yellow Jackets. A big audience is expected. The visitors will be given a location in the hall of the literary societies. The present officers of the association are: Dr. R. E. Blackwell, president; E. R. Freitman, vice-president; and H. C. Nolley, secretary and treasurer. The speakers on Friday night and their subjects are: Emory and Henry College—William and Mary College—Earl Baldwin Thomas, "Individual Personality"; Richmond College—J. M. Crockett, "The Atheism of Coercion"; Roanoke College—L. H. Anderson, "Modern Peace"; Washington and Lee University—D. R. Bailey, "Our Privileges and Follies"; University of Virginia—M. L. Wallerstein, "The New West"; Emory and Henry College—A. B. Brooks, "The South vs. Immigration"; Randolph-Macon College—L. C. Elliott, "The March of Universal Peace."

ACQUITTED ON CHARGE OF HOLDING UP MAN

Verdict of Jury in King George Circuit Court—Dr. Tynman Enters Race for Senate.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Fredericksburg, Va., May 3.—J. E. Radcliffe and R. T. Purkins, Jr., were acquitted by the jury in the Circuit Court of King George county on the charge of holding up a man, and rebelling him of $10 last January. A general meeting of the Laymen's Association of the county will be held in the Baptist Church next Sunday night for reports from the committees of the churches, which have been solicited for contributions for the cause. Professor E. H. Russell will preside. All of the ministers of the county will be present. A men's choir will render music, and will be addressed by Rev. R. J. McBride, D. D. Rev. John R. Jacobs and Rev. J. D. Hendlerite. Resolutions and work mapped out for the future.

Dr. E. W. Tynman, of Madison county, has entered the race for the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate from the Fifteenth Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Madison, Orange, Culpeper and Rappahannock. This makes four contestants for the office, three being F. Pendleton Carter, of Rappahannock; the present Senator, J. H. Wood, of the same county, and C. T. Bowers, of Culpeper.

Howard Peterson, of Middlesex county, states that he has arranged with two prominent men from the Philadelphia market, with the expectation of securing large shipments of produce from the Philadelphia market, to make regular trips.
